3 Fire Companies Called To Extinguish Blaze In Bridgewater

BRIDGEWATER, Nov. 10—Fire which yesterday caused an estimated $3,000 damage to a Bridgewater apartment house and drove three families to flight, was extinguished by firemen from three Bensalem township fire companies before it might have turned into a holocaust.

Cornwells Fire Co., the Union Fire Co. of Cornwells, and the Edgington Fire Co. rushed to answer the alarm turned in by Thomas Watford, Jr., 35, of Bridgewater road, between Newportville and Byberry road, not far from the spot where two tiny children burned to death several weeks ago.

Heard Cracking

Watford, who according to Chief William Ervin of Cornwells Fire Company was in the cellar of the two-apartment structure, heard a cracking and looked up the cellar stairway to see a wall of fire blocking the hall entrance to the cellar-way.

Wrapping old clothes about the stairway, and ducking low, passed through the barrier of flames. He shouted warnings to his roommate, Robert Bowens, and to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins who have the apartment on the second floor.

Firemen were called and when they arrived they found that the fire had raced up the stair-well to the second floor apartment, and had burned through the partition wall separating the stair-well from the downstairs rooms.

Badly Damaged

Chief Ervin said the rooms adjacent to the stairwell on both floors, were badly damaged, as were the floors and ceilings, which Ervin said were not constructed with fire-barriers.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1952

Thirty-four years ago today guns ceased firing over the shell-scarred fields of France and the great adventure to save the world for democracy was at an end.

The shooting had stopped but the forces that drive nations into mortal combat had not been put to rest.

Two decades later another cataclysm, infinitely more horrible than the first, engulfed the world. That was a war to end all wars but its battle cry in these perilous times has come to have the same hollow ring as those that were heard before.

On this Armistice Day it would be easy to yield to futility and despair. But so long as mankind has even one glimmer of hope in its eternal quest for permanent world peace such thoughts are only for the defeatist, neurotic turn of mind.

This is a day for dedication to society's essential humanitarianism. It is a day for renunciation of the power-grabbing politicians who would destroy the civilization man's constructive will and flaming spirit have wrought.

This, in short, is a day of peace of recognition that nation's can live side by side without fear or rancor. Anything less may prove the end of everything.

GETTING RESULTS

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, has been warning Americans over the years not to underestimate the menace of communist infiltration. He is in a position to know.

One of the FBI's major jobs has been to get the inside dope on persons suspected of subversive activities, turning evidence that warrants prosecution over to the Department of Justice. Already 85 key leaders of the communist party have been indicted on evidence provided by the FBI, and 31 have been convicted under the Smith Act.

This is the FBI's way of fighting communism—find out the truth and submit it to the courts. It is the only way to defeat communism, says Mr. Hoover in a recent article in Pathfinder magazine.

"Vigilante attacks, irrational tirades and forceful suppression," the head G-man says, "increase and do not decrease the menace." Such activities "result only in making martyrs of the communists." Posing as a persecuted minority helps them raise funds and recruit members.

The FBI doesn't make much noise about the job it is doing. But if Mr. Hoover is right this is a field in which noise is in inverse proportion to results.

Americans formerly succeeded with their own money. Now the most successful are the politicians who do things with other people's money.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette from issue dated June 23, 1904. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

HULMEVILLE — On Saturday afternoon Oscar Schoenfeld accidentally struck a knife with the forepart of his left arm and severed an artery. Dr. Paxson was called in and found it necessary to take two stitches in the wound.

Samuel Turner made a curious find upon his front porch, corner of Wood and Lafayette streets, on Saturday morning—a set of false teeth and a stogie cigar.

corner of Radcliffe and Washington streets.

LANGHORNE — A fraternity of Swarthmore, a dozen or more graduates, have been spending the week at the Bellevue.

LANGHORNE — The community feels the loss of its most valued and respected citizen, Gove Mitchell, who died on Friday from heart disease and a general breaking of the system. He was in his 81st year and up to within a week of his death has been active in the business world. Since the organization of the Peoples National Bank of Langhorne he has been the cashier. He leaves a widow and three sons, Allen, Horace and George.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Molden leave on next Tuesday for a trip to Germany. Mr. Molden for several years had had charge of the property of the Germania Verein, known as the "German Club." In that position he will be succeeded by Herman Schubert.

Edward Betz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Betz, of Washington street, has been selected by the Board of Directors of the Farmers National Bank to fill the position at the bank made vacant by the resignation of William N. Jarvis. William H. Watson, of Penn Valley, was elected messenger.

In all new ties that are now being put in the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad through Bristol a small nail about an inch and a half long with the figure 4 on its head is being driven, to designate the year the tie was put in, thereby enabling the officials to determine the life and usefulness of a tie.

Postmaster E. W. Minster left last Saturday for Chicago, where he is now attending the National Republican Convention. Jonas S. Harley, of Quakertown, the National delegate, and John T. Fish, of Fallsington, alternate, in company with Mr. Minster, went on the special train from Philadelphia which carried Mayor Weaver and other notables. Governor Pennypacker and his private secretary, Bromley Wharton, of Newportville, started Sunday morning for Chicago.

The Good Will Hose Company cleared $250 on its recent moonlight excursion. It was the most successful excursion ever given by the company.

Howard Douglass this week purchased in Philadelphia for C. C. Strumfels a fine driving horse which will be used by Mr. Strumfels on his country route for the sale of tobacco and cigars.

Another immense addition will be built to the Corona Kid Works, for which the contract will be let within a few days. The new structure will be of brick and about seven hundred feet long—a portion of which will be two stories high.

Peirce & Williams and DeGroot have sold the entire side of Elm street, upon which no buildings have been erected, to Joseph and Frederick Durkin, who will build eleven houses thereon. Messrs. Durkin are the owners of the eleven houses on the opposite side of the street.

The fine weather that has prevailed for the past week or ten days has made trolley riding a favorite form of recreation. On Sundays especially the cars of the Philadelphia, Bristol and Trenton Street Railway Company have been crowded. The extension of this company's tracks in Morrisville to a point close to the tracks of the Trenton and Yardley lines has made traveling to those points convenient, and a great many people have taken advantage of the opportunity afforded them. A favorite route is to take the car at the Closson House corner and go to Newtown, then transfer to the Yardley and Trenton car, making a choice of crossing the Calhoun street bridge to the Jersey Capital or continue on to Morrisville, thence to Bristol, to the starting point. Many prefer to take in Trenton on the trip. The ride to Torresdale is another attractive one, that line doing the heaviest business of any of the roads entering Bristol.

Louis A. Hoguet, the pioneer druggist of Bristol, died this morning at about five o'clock. He was found dead in bed by a member of the family. Although Mr. Hoguet had been a great sufferer for some years from an aggravated form of eczema, death was caused by a general breaking down in health. The deceased was 82 years old, and had been in the drug business in Bristol for forty years.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1952

Thirty-four years ago today guns ceased firing over the shell-scarred fields of France and the great adventure to save the world for democracy was at an end.

The shooting had stopped but the forces that drive nations into mortal combat had not been put to rest.

Two decades later another cataclysm, infinitely more horrible than the first, engulfed the world. That was a war to end all wars but its battle cry in these parlous times has come to have the same hollow ring as those that were heard before.

On this Armistice Day it would be easy to yield to futility and despair. But so long as mankind has even one glimmer of hope in its eternal quest for permanent world peace such thoughts are only for the defeatist, neurotic turn of mind.

This is a day for dedication to society's essential humanitarianism. It is a day for renunciation of the power-grabbing politicians who would destroy the civilization man's constructive will and flaming spirit have wrought.

This, in short, is a day of peace of recognition that nation's can live side by side without fear or rancor. Anything less may prove the end of everything.

GETTING RESULTS

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, has been warning Americans over the years not to underrate the menace of communist infiltration. He is in a position to know.

One of the FBI's major jobs has been to get the inside dope on persons suspected of subversive activities, turning evidence that warrants prosecution over to the Department of Justice. Already 85 key leaders of the communist party have been indicted on evidence provided by the FBI, and 31 have been convicted under the Smith Act.

This is the FBI's way of fighting communism—find out the truth and submit it to the courts. It is the only way to defeat communism, says Mr. Hoover in a recent article in Pathfinder magazine.

"Vigilante attacks, irrational tirades and forceful suppression," the head G-man says, "increase and do not decrease the menace." Such activities "result only in making martyrs of the communists." Posing as a persecuted minority helps them raise funds and recruit members.

The FBI doesn't make much noise about the job it is doing. But if Mr. Hoover is right this is a field in which noise is in inverse proportion to results.

Americans formerly succeeded with their own money. Now the most successful are the politicians who do things with other people's money.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette from issue dated June 23, 1904. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

HULMEVILLE — On Saturday afternoon Oscar Schoenfeld accidentally struck a knife with the forepart of his left arm and severed an artery. Dr. Paxson was called in and found it necessary to take two stitches in the wound.

Samuel Turner made a curious find upon his front porch, corner of Wood and Lafayette streets, on Saturday morning—a set of false teeth and a stogie cigar.

started Sunday morning for Chicago.

The Good Will Hose Company cleared $250 on its recent moonlight excursion. It was the most successful excursion ever given by the company.

Howard Douglass this week purchased in Philadelphia for C. C. Strumfels a fine driving horse which will be used by Mr. Strumfels on his country route for the sale of tobacco and cigars.

Another immense addition will be built to the Corona Kid Works, for which the contract will be let within a few days. The new structure will be of brick and about seven hundred feet long, a portion of which will be two stories high.

Pelree & Williams and DeGroot have sold the entire side of Elm street, upon which no buildings have been erected, to Joseph and Frederick Durkin, who will build eleven houses thereon. Messrs. Durkin are the owners of the eleven houses on the opposite side of the street.

The fine weather that has prevailed for the past week or ten days has made trolley riding a favorite of recreation. On Sundays especially the cars of the Philadelphia, Bristol and Trenton Street Railway Company have been crowded. The extension of this company's tracks in Morrisville to a point close to the tracks of the Trenton and Yardley lines has made traveling to those points convenient, and a great many people have taken advantage of the opportunity afforded them. A favorite route is to take the car at the Closson House corner and go to New York, then transfer to the Yardley and Trenton car, making a choice of crossing the Calhoun street bridge to the Jersey Capital or continue on to Morrisville, thence to Bristol, to the starting point. Many prefer to take in Trenton on the trip. The ride to Torresdale is another attractive one, that line doing the heaviest business of any of the roads entering Bristol.

Edward Betz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Betz, of Washington street, has been selected by the Board of Directors of the Farmers National Bank to fill the position at the bank made vacant by the resignation of William N. Jarvis. William H. Watson, of Penn Valley, was elected messenger.

In all new ties that are now being put in the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad through Bristol a small nail about an inch and a half long with the figure 4 on its head is being driven, to designate the year the tie was put in, thereby enabling the officials to determine the life and usefulness of a tie.

Postmaster E. W. Minster left last Saturday for Chicago, where he is now attending the National Republican Convention. Jonas S. Harley, of Quakertown, the National delegate, and John T. Fish, of Fallsington, alternate, in company with Mr. Minster, went on the special train from Philadelphia which carried Mayor Weaver and other notables. Governor Pennypacker and his private secretary, Bromley Wharton, of Newportville, J., with a possible fractured hip and John Zavetta, 26, York road, Lambertville, dislocated left hip. Mrs. Mary McConnell, 20, was taken to St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, for treatment of a multiple fracture of the pelvis.

Mrs. Margaret Allen, Trenton, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Bloomfield, N. J., were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Allen, New Buckley street.

At 3:30 p. m., members of the bridal party were served dinner at the Club Condado, Trenton, N. J.

Leaving for a motor trip of one week in the south, Mrs. Alonettis wore a navy blue suit, matching accessories, and a white orchid. She and her husband will reside in an apartment at the Denza home. FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

TO JOIN BLUE CROSS

and/or BLUE SHIELD

AS NON-GROUP MEMBERS

Until November 15 only, there will be no employment requirements for non-group membership. The only qualifications are that new non-group members be under 66 and in reasonably good health.

BLUE CROSS settles your hospital bills for you. BLUE SHIELD helps pay your doctor bills.

Until November 15 only, these famous nonprofit, community-sponsored plans are dropping all employment requirements for non-group members. The only qualifications are that new members be under 66 and in reasonably good health. Your whole family can join. But you must hurry!

BLUE CROSS provides hospital services

You get a semiprivate room. Also meals, nursing service, all approved drugs and medications (including all the costly "miracle drugs" you require), operating room facilities, surgical dressings, oxygen, many other important benefits in member hospitals. You get services, not a lump sum of cash that may not even begin to cover your bill. Maternity benefits may be included. Once a member, you can stay a member as long as you choose.

You can have this priceless hospital protection for every member of your family, no matter how large it may be, for about 13c a day. (Single people pay less than a nickel a day.) Since there's one chance in three someone in your family will go to the hospital within the year, BLUE CROSS may save you hundreds—even thousands—of dollars, perhaps very soon!

BLUE SHIELD provides for doctor bills

BLUE SHIELD pays all or a large part of medical-surgical expenses for treatment of any disease, injury, fracture or dislocation. You choose your own doctor. Cooperating physicians and surgeons in Pennsylvania have agreed to make no charge to you whatsoever for services covered by BLUE SHIELD in case your family income is limited (for instance, if it is less than $1,000 and you have two or more dependents). But you benefit from BLUE SHIELD regardless of income.

Complete BLUE SHIELD family protection, including maternity benefits, costs about 11c a day. Protection for single people is less than 4c a day.

BLUE CROSS and BLUE SHIELD give you most for your money

Only nonprofit organizations designed for community service could possibly give you so much for so little. Last year, for instance, more than 92c of each dollar BLUE CROSS took in was paid directly to hospitals for subscriber care! Official Pennsylvania reports (for 1951) show that several widely advertised health insurance programs paid out for benefits less than 40c of every dollar they took in—and that one of these paid out only about 21c for every dollar received.

You'll lose out if you wait!

Remember, this is your last chance to take advantage of the current non-group offer. Don't dig deep into your savings for hundreds of dollars to pay hospital and medical-surgical bills. Spend just a few cents a day for the peace of mind and matchless financial protection that only BLUE CROSS and BLUE SHIELD can give you. Act today—there's no time to lose!

Marie E. Atkinson Becomes Bride of Ralph E. Kirk

NEWTOWN, Nov. 10 — In the Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon, Miss Marie Elizabeth Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Atkinson, of Doylestown road, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Edward Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kirk, of Newtown, R. D.

The Rev. J. Laurence Carr, pastor of the church, officiated at a double ring ceremony, with Mr. Fred Haley, of the Westminster Choir School, Princeton, N. J., at the organ. He also accompanied Mrs. William Melsky as she sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother, and wore a redingote of lustrous Skinner satin, with cathedral train, long pointed sleeves, and shell sequins on both sides of the standup collar of the redingote. The bodice was of Florentine lace, fashioned shoulder baring, bouffant skirt with hoops. Her Juliet cap was fashioned of satin and Florentine lace with seed pearls and insets of lace. Her long fingertip veil of French tulle fell therefrom and she carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Miss Marie Atkinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and she wore royal blue net over matching taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and velvet midriff and net tiers up front of bodice. Her skirt was long and full with hoops and a matching net stole completed the costume. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations and wore a crownless bonnet of velvet and net trimmed with yellow ribbons.

Miss Gwendolyn Price, Langhorne, bridesmaid, wore peacock, the bodice of velvet and the long full skirt of matching net over taffeta with hoops. A small hat was of taffeta and net with net ruffle across front and trimmed with pink roses. She carried pink carnations in a cascading bouquet.

Miss Grace DeVito, of Trenton, N. J., bridesmaid, wore a gown of dusty rose yvot and net fashioned similar to the gown worn by Miss Price and carried blue carnations with blue roses on her bonnet.

Deborah Anderson, of Downingtown, and Linda Harris, of Honey Brook, cousins of the bride, wore flower girls and wore dusty rose taffeta gowns scalloped at the neckline and hems with hoops. They wore old-fashioned nosegays on their sashes and carried crocheted baskets of sweetheart roses and stephanotis. Each wore a taffeta and net bonnet with blue roses attached.

Mr. Paul Atkinson, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Raymond Whitesell, of Doylestown, and Mr. Richard Hays, of Newtown.

Mrs. Atkinson chose a cocktail length gown of peacock aqua crepe with square neckline and cape sleeves trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones, matching hat, black accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Mrs. Kirk, mother of the bridegroom, wore an electric blue ensemble, gold accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses and stephanotis.

A reception in Wesley Hall followed, after which the couple left for a trip through New England states. They will reside at the Kirk home.

The bride is an alumna of Council Rock high school, class of 1951, and is associated with Commercial Credit Corp. The bridegroom, an alumnus of Council Rock, has

"What shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" (St. Matt. 27:22.)

There are some inescapable questions in life, this is one of them. Like most of those questions that we can't hide from, the answer is an answer that results in one of two things: Life or death. This particular question was asked by the man who was instrumental in the Crucifixion of Jesus, but the same question put in other words has been asked by the servants of God. Elijah asked this question when he said to the people, "How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow Him; but if Baal, then follow him."

There is not so much as an atom or a split atom of neutral ground on which a man may stand before this question. Answer every man shall, for no man can escape it. The way we answer it will determine the kind of world in which we shall live and the kind of individuals we shall be. It is answered by us every moment of our lives, in our businesses, in our relations with one another, in our families, in our nation and in our international relationships. What in all these things shall you and I do with Jesus who is called Christ?

"I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life..." (Deut. 30:19.)

Marie E. Atkinson Becomes Bride of Ralph E. Kirk

NEWTOWN, Nov. 10 — In the Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon, Miss Marie Elizabeth Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Atkinson, of Doylestown road, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Edward Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kirk, of Newtown, R. D.

The Rev. J. Laurence Carr, pastor of the church, officiated at a double ring ceremony, with Mr. Fred Haley, of the Westminster Choir School, Princeton, N. J., at the organ. He also accompanied Mrs. William Melsky as she sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother, and wore a redingote of lustrous Skinner satin, with cathedral train, long pointed sleeves, and shell sequins on both sides of the standup collar of the redingote. The bodice was of Florentine lace, fashioned shoulder baring, bouffant skirt with hoops. Her Juliet cap was fashioned of satin and Florentine lace with seed pearls and insets of lace. Her long fingertip veil of French tulle fell therefrom and she carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Miss Marie Atkinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and she wore royal blue net over matching taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and velvet midriff and net tiers up front of bodice. Her skirt was long and full with hoops and a matching net stole completed the costume. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations and wore a crownless bonnet of velvet and net trimmed with yellow rosebuds.

Miss Gwendolyn Price, Langhorne, bridesmaid, wore peacock, the bodice of velvet and the long full skirt of matching net over taffeta with hoops. A small hat was of taffeta and net with net ruffle across front and trimmed with pink roses. She carried pink carnations in a cascading bouquet.

Miss Grace DeVito, of Trenton, N. J., bridesmaid, wore a gown of dusty rose velvet and net fashioned similar to the gown worn by Miss Price and carried blue carnations with blue roses on her bouquet.

Deborah Anderson, of Downingtown, and Linda Harris, of Honey Brook, cousins of the bride, wore flower girls and wore dusty rose taffeta gowns scalloped at the neckline and hems with hoops. They wore old-fashioned nosegays on their sashes and carried crocheted baskets of sweetheart roses and stephanotis. Each wore a taffeta and net bonnet with blue roses attached.

Mr. Paul Atkinson, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Raymond Whitesell, of Doylestown, and Mr. Richard Hays, of Newtown.

Mrs. Atkinson chose a cocktail length gown of peacock aqua crepe with square neckline and cape sleeves trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones, matching hat, black accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Mrs. Kirk, mother of the bridegroom, wore an electric blue ensemble, gold accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses and stephanotis.

A reception in Wesley Hall followed, after which the couple left for a trip through New England states. They will reside at the Kirk home.

The bride is an alumna of Council Rock high school, class of 1951, and is associated with Commercial Credit Corp. The bridegroom, an alumnus of Council Rock, has

Bensalem Combines Passing Attack With Ground Attack to Score Touchdown and Defeat Bristol

Bensalem Township High combined its passing attack with a ground attack in the second quarter to score a touchdown and beat Bristol High, 6-0, in their annual Lower Bucks County League game here Saturday.

Two passes, one for four yards and the other for 22, set up the touchdown as Al Parker went over on three line bucks after the aerials had placed the ball on the 4-yard line.

Bensalem also missed out on a score in the second quarter as it reached the one-yard line after a Bristol penalty. It had one chance to score but Bristol held before time ran out, ending the half.

The Warriors had their best opportunity to cross the goal line in the third when they ripped off three consecutive first downs to haul the pigskin from their 38 to the Bensalem 17. But here the visitors braced and the localites lost the ball on downs.

ARMISTICE DAY

The armistice was meant to be the end of armed hostility. And it would be, were it not for aggressors and their love for war. Because of them, the rest of us are forced in times so perilous to arm ourselves with all we've got in case they put us on the spot.

With the arrival of Armistice Day, it is high time to make preparations for a comfortable heating season. The best provision you can make is to sign a contract with your local fuel oil company for an adequate and timely delivery of a top grade fuel oil. You and your oil burner will have the best when you use Gulf Fuel Oil as supplied by the Piroli Fuel, Inc., Main Street, Tullytown, Corson Street, Bristol. Phone Bristol 9627.
